

7.3.1 Performance of the institution in one area of distinctiveness

Ursuline Women's Teachers' Training Collage was established in 1971. It was established under the management of Ranchi Ursuline Society. It is one of the Christian minority institutions to impart and provide in the field of higher education for the deserving candidates and prove to be a milestone in the part of the progress. The college is affiliated to Ranchi University, Ranchi. It is recognized and approved by NCTE, Bhubaneswar. The vision statement of UW TTC is enable the students to become integrated persons and torchbearers of future generation, face the challenges of life, recognize the human dignity, and contribute to the building up of the nation. The aim and objectives of the institution is to educate the young women in a spirit of service to the humanity.

The society's priorities in education are not only academic excellence, but also formation of young women in discipline, hard work, moral and religious values. these priorities are meant to prepare them for life, by promoting intellectual excellence, uprightness of character, emotional maturity, scientific temper and spirit of healthy competition through co-curricular activities, moral sensitivity to the needs and rights of others especially the poor, religious tolerance and national integration. It is the aim of the College that the students who take their training here become integrated and well-formed guides who accompany the young learners on their journey of becoming fully human. Since it is women friendly campus, it gives lots of opportunities to grow in different areas of life. It also educates the educated women to walk parallel with the society by exposing them to the needs of the communities. They are empowered to update themselves with use of technology.

The institution has created an atmosphere to have all round development through different co-curricular activities. The students are divided into four groups namely, St. Angela, St. Ursula, St. Augustine and Fr. John Lambertz. There different competitions organised every month for the students to enhance their capacity, logical thinking, creativity, intellectual power and social and emotional intelligence.
